

NJ laws are too restrivtive. I am a small business owner. Being able to contact friends and family or even older clients and prospects is crucial. I don't have million dollar advertising budgets how do I keep my business around and growing without calling those that I know and that know me. Save us from these restrictive constaints.